DIARY NOTES

DD/S [REDACTED]

30 September 1960

1. At the Deputies' Meeting this morning:

a. Without disagreement on the part of anyone present the Director approved of leaving the Foreign Documents Division out of the new building when we move into it. (See Memorandum for the Record.) H

b. We discussed the contents of the Cornerstone box and the fact that the contractor wants to put the Cornerstone permanently in place within the next few days. The Director authorized me to decide what should finally go into the box unless one of the other Deputies had strong disagreement in which case he would consider the matter again. H

3. [REDACTED] was up to discuss with me the proposal he and I have talked about before which would establish position allowances for key DD/P people.

4. [REDACTED] alerted me to the fact that [REDACTED] who is now the DD/P Records Officer had been conducting a campaign in DD/P to have an Executive Officer for each division as well as one for the Deputy Director (Plans) whose responsibilities would include records management. Vernon said he told Ed that he could not concur in any such recommendation.

was there last year called on me to inquire about the possibility of working for CIA. I explained to him that about the only possibility would be to enter through the JOT Program and that we would be glad to have him make application for it. I gave him our Personal History Statement and accompanying forms and told him that I would alert the Office of Personnel to his interest.

6. [REDACTED] briefed me on the mission, functions and current activities of [REDACTED] after which we visited their physical [REDACTED] In consideration of the relatively [REDACTED] which have been trained this is a fairly expensive program in terms of dollars; however, their installations are modest enough. They have far more space downtown than they actually need and it is very inefficiently used. If we are to continue this program, which I assume we must, then we should try very hard to avoid renewing the lease on this property which is up in December and I have asked Jim Garrison to make every effort to do this.

7. [REDACTED] was up to review with me his entire employment record in CIA and to tell me about his most recent difficulties with Jim Garrison and [REDACTED] He has decided to resign effective the end of the calendar year and wants my help in finding another job. (He thinks that he has a job lined up with [REDACTED] and is anxious that we give him a good recommendation when [REDACTED] calls.) I told him that under the circumstances I thought he probably should resign and that we would certainly be as generous ^{as we could} in our response to any queries about outside employment.
